Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 1-5, drawn to a method for identifying an agent that modulates (inhibits/activates) 8834 polypeptide activity of SEQ ID Nos. 2, classified in class 435, subclass 21.
 - II. Claims 6-15, drawn to a method of modulating erythropoiesis, comprising contacting an agent that modulates the activity or expression of a 8834 polypeptide, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
 - III. Claims 16-17 & 25-30 drawn to a method of treating or preventing an erythroid-associated disorder, comprising administering the subject an effective amount of an agent that modulates the expression or activity of a 8834 polypeptide, classified in class 424, subclass 94.5.
 - IV. Claims 18-24, drawn to a method of modulating the proliferation, differentiation or survival of a CD34 positive cell, contacting the cell with an agent that modulates the activity or expression of 8834 polypeptide, classified in class 435, subclass 377.
 - V. Claim 31, drawn to isolated nucleic acid of SEQ ID NO : 1 or 3, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.
 - VI. Claim 32, drawn to isolated polypeptide of SEQ ID NO : 2, classified in class 435, subclass 69.1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

The methods of Inventions I-IV are related in that each method requires the use of Inventions V or VI. However, the steps and end points of each of the methods are wholly different and therefore Inventions I-IV are patentably distinct.

The DNA of group V is related to the protein of group VI by virtue of the fact that the DNA codes for the protein. The DNA molecule has utility for the recombinant production of the protein in a host cell. Although the DNA and the protein are related, because the DNA encodes the specifically claimed protein, they are distinct inventions because the protein product can be made by other and materially distinct processes, such as purification from the natural source. Further, DNA can be used for processes other than the production of protein, such as nucleic acid hybridization assays.

3. A telephone call was not made to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement.
4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Rejoinder

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
